

AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

2010 Distinguished Achievement in Accounting Education Award

Award Overview: The AICPA Distinguished Achievement in Accounting Education Award is designed to recognize full-time college accounting educators distinguished for excellence in teaching and for national prominence in the accounting profession.

State CPA societies as well as individuals may submit nominations for the annual award. Self-nominations are not accepted.

Number of Recipients: 1

Nomination Deadline: February 1, 2010 (postmarked)

Selection Process: A task force will review all qualified nominations and select the award winner. The award winner will be announced and presented with an award at the Spring Meeting of AICPA Council to be held May 23-25, 2010 in San Diego, CA.

All nominators will be notified of the final selection by regular mail in early May. Nominees who are not selected for the award remain eligible for future consideration for two additional years, provided that they still meet the selection criteria and an updated nomination form and biographical data are submitted.

Questions: Contact Danielle Grant at 919.402.4014 or dgrant@aicpa.org.

Eligibility Requirements: Initial next to each item to verify that your nominee meets the requirement. The nominee need not be a CPA nor hold a doctoral degree. Educators who are noted for their teaching abilities, but are now primarily involved in administration or research, are also eligible for the award.
